Balance in Whist and Generalized Whist Designs – Some Classic and Recent Constructions

Norman J. Finizio, W. Kent Rudasill*, University of Rhode Island and Portsmouth Abbey School

The concept of balance is a relatively new specialization in whist designs. We demonstrate that a number of classic and recently introduced whist designs possess this property. We also extend the concept of balance to generalized whist designs.

Keywords: Whist Designs, Balanced Whist Designs, Generalized Whist Designs