Weak Saturation and Bootstrap Percolation in Graphs

Roman Vasquez, Auburn University

Weak saturation and bootstrap percolation are two variations on the same process, which measures the presence of certain subgraphs H inside of a given graph. We will explore weak saturation numbers of graphs and their connection to the H-bootstrap percolation process and then present some results about minimum weakly saturated graphs.