

Combinatorics of square ice graphs

Jessica Striker, North Dakota State University

Square ice graphs are simply-defined directed graphs that are in bijection with certain configurations of water molecules frozen in a square two-dimensional grid. We discuss the enumeration of these graphs, bijections to other combinatorial objects, and an interesting global action on these graphs composed of toggles.